

Hello Daisy Families,

I just wanted to thank the troop for helping to make our Daisy Scout event a successful one this past Saturday. I had a great time – and it looked like our little Daisies did too. Of course I'll cover all the fun details of our World Thinking Day activity and PJ-themed movie night in the March newsletter. For now, however, I must recognize Corrine Dugan for the outstanding job she did as the Event Coordinator – before, during, and after the event. I cannot thank you enough, Corrine. And the same goes to all the parents who donated supplies for our movie night and activity session. These efforts go a long way in enhancing the quality of our events (and meetings) more than you realize, and I want you all to know how much I appreciate the help you give our troop.

So to all those who attended Saturday night, thank you. And thank you to the parents who stayed to enjoy the event. I hope your daughters enjoyed the chance to relax and play with their other Daisy friends in a non-meeting environment; I know I did!
