

Hello Daisy Families,

International Faire was awesome! Each troop represented their country so well. Between the food, costumes and activities our Daisies had a great time visiting each country and having their passport stamped! Thanks to all who attended and a big thank you to Troop 33120 for hosting the event!

Happy Girl Scout Week!

Girl Scout Week is celebrated each March – this year it falls March 10 – 16. The week traditionally starts with Girl Scout Sunday and ends with Girl Scout Sabbath on a Saturday. It always includes the Girl Scout Birthday, March 12.

Unfortunately we will not be able to celebrate the GS birthday this year as we had planned, but we can use this week to introduce a new independent project: My Promise, My Faith.

My Promise, My Faith

Attached you'll find an introduction to the My Promise, My Faith program, as well as the steps to complete in order to earn the pin. This is an independent project, and an optional one. You do not have to practice religion in order to participate – I tried to be clear in writing the instructions that FAITH can be found anywhere and put into anything or anyone. It does not have to be a religious faith in order to earn this award.

As you read the attachment, you'll find there are several steps to earning the My Promise, My Faith pin. You only have to complete two – so pick which two you'd like to do. When completed, you must document your experience by writing on paragraph (5 sentences) about what you chose to do and what you learned as a result. Think of this question when you write, "what do the Girl Scout Law and my faith have in common: what do they share?"

The deadline for submitting your paragraph is May 1st.

This is our troop's first experience at independent learning and earning of an award, so naturally there will be questions. Please email me with anything you may have and I will do my best to guide you through it.

Thank you all, and have fun!

~ Dennie
