

TROOP 30122 NEWSLETTER

MARCH 2013

I want to thank April Meagher and Susan Cole for an outstanding job hosting our February General Meeting. Melissa Harnett and Jessica Smith, thank you for helping with the breakout groups. At this last meeting we learned and practiced how to be courageous and strong (Nice push-ups everyone!), earning our Tula Petal along the way.

I also want to thank Corrine Dugan for organizing both the Troop Movie Night and the World Thinking Day activity that went along with it. You know, whether hosting a meeting or an event, your willingness to participate shows our Daisy girls just how courageous and strong we parents can be. And to the parents who have been contributing items for our events/activities: I am so grateful – without your contributions we simply could not provide for our troop at the same level we have been. We just couldn't do it without you.

Three New Daisies in our Troop!

I just wanted to announce our newest members of the troop: Pateel, Maude, and Tyndall. Most of you have met Pateel already, but we'll be making formal introductions for all three when they join us at the next meeting. Welcome girls to Troop 30122's Daisy Family!

Co-Troop Event @ General Meeting

The next general meeting will be held on March 21st in the Clubhouse @ Miramonte Gardens. Our hosts, however, will be Brownie Troop 32456. Nearing completion of their Wonders of Water Journey, Troop 32456 will be teaching all Daisies about the importance water, managing four (4) rotating educational water stations. Perfectly paired with our learning activities, we will be earning the Use Resources Wisely Green Petal patch. Please go ahead and affix the green petal to your tunic in preparation for the event. Then get ready to have fun with your Brownie Buddies!

My Promise My Faith

Girl Scout Week is next week Mar 10-16, and there's no better time than this to introduce the My Promise, My Faith award for Daisies. A faith journey through exploration of the Girl Scout Law, this is a voluntary activity to be done on your own time and turned in by May 1st. I will send out a separate announcement with details and at-home activities this week - stay tuned!
