

TROOP 30122 NEWSLETTER

NOVEMBER 2012

I wanted to thank all of you for a successful start to our General Meetings. This past meeting was our first, and it was an ambitious one. I don't know if you've realized it, but we completed two (2) badges at this meeting: the Promise Center and the Lupe Petal. Although we started our work on the Promise Center at our Welcome Meeting, we completed the patch last Thursday with additional work. We also packed the remainder of the meeting with the lessons and activities of Lupe the Lupine – the flower friend for which the light blue petal is named. Lupe taught us to be honest and fair, and our activities allowed us to practice them both by ourselves and with each other. Give your little Daisies a big pat on the back for completing their first two (2) badges!

DAISY SCOUTS @ HOME

Earning the Promise Center is at the heart of Daisy Scout curriculum, and so is understanding the Promise. While we will continue to open every meeting by reciting the Promise, it will help if each Daisy were to practice the Promise at home: you can work together to memorize the Promise with your little Daisies. You can read the Promise together, identifying each word as you go. You can quiz your little Daisy on each of the parts of the Promise, or you can practice reciting the Promise each night before bed. Anyway you do it, it's going to help a lot!

Preparation for General Meeting

The next general meeting will be held on December 13th in the Clubhouse @ Miramonte Gardens. Our host will be Susan Cole (Chelsea's Mom). Our Flower Friend of the Month is Sunny the Sunflower. By the end of the meeting Sunny will have taught us how to be friendly and helpful, and we will have also completed the Sunni Petal [yellow]. For this reason, please take the time to iron on the Sunni Petal prior to the meeting. Instructions for application are included in the Girl Scout folders we each received at the last meeting. The diagram for placement of the petals was included in the Welcome Letter at the first meeting and is also featured on the website.

Girl Scout Promise

On My Honor, I will try:

To serve God and my country,

To help people at all times,

And to live by the Girl Scout Law
